JAPANESE PILE CURE

A New and Complete Treatment, consisting of SITZ-BATHS, Capsules of Ointment and two Boxes of Ointment. A never-failing Cure for Piles of every nature and degree. It makes an operation with the knife or injections of carbolic acid, which are painful and seldom a permanent cure, and often resulting in death, unnecessary. Why endure this terrible disease? We guarantee to cure you in any case. You only pay for benefits received. $1 a box, 6 for $5. Sent by mail.
Guarantees issued by our agents.

CONSTIPATION Cured, Piles Prevented, the great LIVER and STOMACH REGULATOR and BLOOD PURIFIER. Small, mild and pleasant to take, especially adapted for children's use. 50 Doses 25 cents.

GUARANTEES issued only by 4 10 1y CHRISTIAN & BARBEE.

The Blood is the Fountain of Life
Therefore if the blood be impure and unhealthy, the body will become sick, and disease will fasten itself upon it and death will mark it as one of its early victims. Make clean the blood, and you will be healthy. Scrofula, old sores, and kindred diseases will disappear, and health and happiness reign where disease and misery held sway. We say to sufferers, take Dr. David's Tonic and Sarsaparilla. It has no equal as a blood purifier.
Just try it. Price, $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00, at Mastic & Martin's, Roanoke, Va.

Are You Tired and Experiencing
A good feeling; feel a loss of spirit and a lack of interest in what is going on around you. Have your appetite failed and have you become weak and languid? Do you feel that what you have eaten has not satisfied you and has done you no good? Do you sometimes feel a "lump" rising in your throat or a burning in your stomach?
Does your food ferment shortly after eating and cause you to belch? If you have any of the above symptoms you need a mild tonic, not strong drugs. Get at once a bottle of Dr. David's Tonic and Iron Tonic Bitters and life will be worth living. Price, $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00, at Mastic & Martin's.

Old papers for the next week at 10 cents per hundred.

THE TIMES KODAK.

Interesting News Items Gathered Around Salem.

Roanoke county court commenced its April term Monday and is still in session, Judge Griffin presiding. The following business has been transacted.

The will of Gustavus A. Sedon, deceased, provided upon the oaths of James J. Sloan and Elijah Poage. G. W. Kelly made application for a pension.

The following special grand jury were empaneled and sworn: James Farrow, foreman; James E. Medley, J. D. Deyler, S. D. Goodie, J. F. Haley, T. A. Roberts, Lewis Huff, Alexander Moses and James E. Howbert and presented true bills against the following parties:

W. O. Burks and B. F. McAbee, felony; George Ferguson, felonious cutting and wounding; D. H. Holloman, embezzlement; Farrow Frog, grand larceny; Robert Stone, felony; John Babbie, petit larceny; Robert Stone, unlawful trespass. The grand jury were then discharged.

The application of W. H. Karnes for two liquor licenses at the house of Wilson Wertz, near the Brigewater Carriage Works, was granted, giving bonds of $250 each, with Wilson Wertz as security.

William Nowlin and Andrew Nowlin, prisoners in the county jail for stealing oats on Bent mountain, were released.

Henderson Leo qualified as attorney to practice in this court.

The application of B. F. Lockett for a liquor license was docketed.

W. L. Brown was exempted from working the roads upon the certificate of Dr. J. B. Baskerville.

Upon the application of B. S. Webb to discontinue a road near his farm Charles L. Hatcher, H. W. Hundley, J. B. Spiggle and John H. Garst were appointed commissioners to view the road and to report at present term of the court.

The application of John N. Jordan for two licenses at the West End of Roanoke was docketed.

A not prosecution was entered in the case of B. F. McAbee for felony.

In the case of the commonwealth vs. W. O. Burks and B. F. McAbee for felony, B. F. McAbee was recognized to appear the first day of the next term in the penalty of $100; both prisoners being jointly arraigned pleaded not guilty, and the case was continued for the commonwealth, all the witnesses being recognized to appear.

The court ordered a capias to be issued in the case of D. H. Holloman, charged with embezzlement. The case of Robert Stone was tried before a jury, who after hearing the evidence, found the prisoner not guilty. Since last term of the court 114 deeds have been admitted to record.

Dr. Wiley says that the idea of his carrying his stick in his hand when he had that little alteration in Monday's meeting is a mistake; he gave it to a friend when he started across the hall. He says he is sixty-three years old, but he can take care of himself without a stick.

A marriage license was issued in the county clerk's office Monday to John Thomas Falls and Mary A. Rider, both of this county.

Mrs. W. W. Ballard is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Many of those who were most earnest in supporting the claims of Mr. McCauley for county clerk take his defeat most gracefully and say that they will cheerfully support Judge Griffin, the nominee of the Democratic convention.

Judge Blair is holding circuit court in Craig. Colonel Hansbrough is among the lawyers in attendance.

District Deputy Grand Master Wright, of Roanoke, and Deputy Grand Lecturer Bumgardner, of Staunton, attended Taylor Lodge Monday night, when work was performed in the third degree. Shanks Chapter will meet daily and nightly during this week to receive instructions from the deputy grand lecturer.

IN CAMP AND BARRACKS.

The United States has a regular army of 25,745 men, a war footing of 5,165,000 and the annual cost of the army is about $10,000,000.

Mrs. CUSTER attended her husband in his camp life for twenty years, moving from fort to fort, but she says he never confided his military plans to her.

The bayonet is so called because it was first used, it is said, near Bayonne. A Basque regiment, having exhausted their ammunition, placed long knives in the barrels of their muskets and made the original bayonet charge.

Recent additions to the British navy have rendered necessary a large increase in the number of men required. In 1890-1 there were 68,809 men on the fleet list. In 1891-2 the number was 71,000, the present year 74,100, and for the coming financial year provision is asked for 76,700.

REAR ADMIRAL DAVID B. HARMONY, in command of the Asiatic station, has been ordered home for retirement. Rear Admiral Irwin, commander of the Mare Island navy yard, has been ordered to relieve him. Admiral Harmony's retirement will promote Commodore Weaver to the rank of rear admiral.

CHARITABLE BEQUESTS.

The German hospital in New York city will receive $10,000 from the will of Edward H. Just.

The late David S. Ingalls, of Buffalo, left $200,000 to the Presbyterian board of home missions, $150,000 to the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, $30,000 to the Presbyterian board of relief for disabled ministers, and to the Young Men's Christian association of Buffalo $100,000.

The trustees of the Pennsylvania museum and school for industrial art in Philadelphia have received an offer of $100,000 from William Weightman, of that city, toward the purchase of certain buildings once used as a deaf and dumb institute, conditioned on the raising of a like sum by the trustees.

MARY PATTON, late of Philadelphia, has left to the Presbyterian board of education $5,000, to the Presbyterian home for widows and single women $500, to the Presbyterian orphanage $500, and to the Ninth Presbyterian church $1,000 for the debt, to be withheld until the congregation raise a like sum for the same purpose.

ART GLEANINGS.

M. MERREY, a French artist, has succeeded in photographing a flying insect. The time of exposure was only 1-2500 of a second.

Mrs. HELEN E. KING's portrait of Gen. Sherman, which was on exhibition in Cleveland, but was sent to the world's fair, has been examined by one of that officer's sons and by Gen. Miles, and they both commend the picture warmly.

Mrs. J. MONTGOMERY SEARS, of Boston, has added to the five-hundred-dollar prize awarded to her by the New York Water Color society and given it to a teacher in Boston who had not had a vacation in fifteen years, to enable her to make a trip to Europe.

MARCUS LENOX, the French artist, whose cat pictures have made him famous and rich, is said to have been so poor only eight years ago that it was only through the entrance of a homeless kitten to his garret that he was one night prevented from destroying himself. He painted a picture of it, and from that time his fortune was assured.

WOMAN'S WAYS AND THOUGHTS.

A BRIDE recently married in London wore the wedding dress which had been made for Princess May, of Teck.

The high shell combs of our grandmothers are again in vogue, with the empire gown and the Josephine coiffure.

It is perhaps not generally known that the water cress, that best of garnishes for a noble roast, has a distinct value as a blood purifier.

AN undergraduate at a girls' college was asked the other day what was the most famous forest in France. Her answer was promptly given: "The Bois de Boulogne."

A dramatic critic of a current London piece patiently inveighs against the leading lady's extraordinary conduct in going out skating in a black satin tea-gown with a long train.

The empress of Japan organized a fine exhibit of the work of Japanese for the world's fair. Three rooms were decorated by Japanese women, and articles exhibited, including painting, embroidery, carving and china painting.

PUNGENT PARAGRAPHS.

"WHAT in the name of Jupiter have you sewed up all the pockets in my overcoat for?" "Dearest, I have an important letter to my milliner that I wish you to mail."—Inter Ocean.

"The scent of violets makes Patti so hoarse that she can scarcely speak," said Gasser to Chinner. That evening Mr. Chinner took home a large bunch of violets to Mrs. Chinner.—N. Y. Press.

How THOSE GIRLS LOVE ONE ANOTHER.—Clara—"How many times did you dance last night?" Maud—"Three." Clara—"Then there must have been at least twenty dances, weren't there?"—Truth.

"This czar must have a pretty nice time, after all," said Mr. Meekins. "What makes you think so?" asked his wife. "His wife takes chances on going to Siberia if she blows him up."—Washington Star.
